Get acquainted with your floating resort, relax by the pool, take a class, shop in the boutiques, enjoy the cuisine, or try your luck in the casino. You are sure to enjoy relaxing today.

Day 6/Tuesday, January 23: Puerto Vallarta, Mexico:

Puerto Vallarta was sleepy no more; its transformation into an international resort had begun. Then director John Huston chose the village as the location for his film "Night of the Iguana". Today, the city has its own "Gringo Gulch," a haunt of the rich and famous. Travelers are also drawn by its climate, its excellent shopping - which offers great values on leather goods, jewelry, and handicrafts - and miles of palm-lined beaches. (10:00 am – 8:00 pm).

Day 7/Wednesday, January 24: Mazatlan, Mexico:

Lying just below the Tropic of Cancer, Mazatlan boasts a superb year-round climate. Mazatlan, a name that means "Place of the Deer," sits on a peninsula at the feet of the rugged Sierra Madre, and the Cerro de Neveria - "Ice Box Hill" - divides the area's rocky Pacific beaches from the broad, white-sand beaches beloved by visitors. The climate, the beaches, and the world-class sportfishing have turned this commercial fishing port into one of the world's top resort destinations. Yet while visitors flock to the markets, bathe in the sun, or marvel at the airborne ballet of the famed Papantla dancers, Mazatlan remains one of Mexico's major Pacific ports - the city exports over 40 million pounds of shrimp every year. (7:00 am – 5:00 pm).

Day 8/Thursday, January 25: Cabo San Lucas, Mexico:

Millennia ago, Cabo San Lucas was part of the Mexican mainland. Then a massive rupture of the San Andreas Fault sent the waters of the Pacific crashing into the newly formed depression, creating the Sea of Cortez and the Baja Peninsula. Lying at the very tip of Baja, where the Pacific meets the Sea of Cortez, Cabo San Lucas - is one of the world's premier resort destinations. Swim in the transparent waters, marvel at the wealth of marine life, relax on one of the white-sand beaches or try your hand at some of the finest sportfishing in the world. (7:00 a – 2:00 pm)

Day 9/Friday, January 26: Day at Sea

Enjoy your last day at sea on your 2018 winter escape!

Day 10/Saturday, January 27: Disembarkation and Los Angeles/Hollywood tour

Cruising smoothly into Los Angeles this morning, you will disembark and be met by your coach and step-on guide for an exciting tour of the highlights of Los Angeles/Hollywood – including time for lunch at the Farmers Market. Then you will enjoy an overnight hotel stay in the Los Angeles area.

Day 11/Sunday, January 28: Transfer to airport and fly home

After breakfast, transfer to the Los Angeles airport for your homeward bound flight and transfer back to Davenport.
