Then set out for attractions along Duval Street or Mallory Square, both hubs for shopping and nightlife. Don't miss the six-toed cats living at Ernest Hemingway's famed Spanish Colonial house-turned-museum. And, a photo op awaits at the Southernmost Point of the United States, a concrete buoy memorializing Key West's geography. (8:00 am – 5:30 pm)

Day 6/Monday, February 1: George Town, Grand Cayman

Grand Cayman has the glitz and glam you might expect from a city known for its financial district, but also has the sandy beaches, translucent blue water, and laid-back island lifestyle you'd expect from a Caribbean getaway. These two sides of the island give George Town a beautifully vibrant atmosphere. (7:00 am – 4:00 pm).

Day 7/Tuesday, February 2: Day at Sea: Enjoy another relaxing day at sea.

Day 8/Wednesday, February 3: Kralendijk, Bonaire:

Kralendijk is the sleepy capital of Bonaire. It is lined with delightfully pastel stucco houses, in pinks, oranges and lime greens. Famous for its diving, the lively world under the sea is the allure of this laidback island. The island is surrounded by a marine park that starts at the beach and extends 200 feet in depth and covers its entire coastline. View the flamingos, go hiking or get lucky in the only barefoot casino in the Caribbean. (2:00 pm – 10:00 pm).

Day 9/Tuesday, February 4: Oranjestad, Aruba:

The capital of Aruba is made for walking. Browse the candy-colored townhouses, architectural details, and open-air patios that define this charming Dutch community. When it's beach time, dig your toes into the soft white sand and soak your skin in the warm Caribbean water. Divers and snorkelers flock to cruise to Aruba for its vibrant coral reefs, neon tropical fish, and eerie old shipwrecks. Or board a catamaran for a peaceful day of sailing and snorkeling. When it's time to shop, browse Aruba's boutiques and find local crafts in the marketplace nearby. (7:00 am – 8:00 pm).
